That Is Bush's View of Train-Service Controversy.

Places All the Burden on Companies, He Says.

ICE SHORTAGE IN THE WEST

Union Pacific Idaho Rate Case Set for September 23.

C. F. Jett, Superintendent Anthony & Northern.

WHERE THE BLAME BELONGS

The president denies he has thrown over the principle of arbi-tration. But actions speak louder The actions speak counter reaching of profess and platfor and in a comparison of the continue tration. But actions speak louder than professions. The railways repeatedly offered arbitration, and the president made absolutely no real effort to get the men to accept it. The president adds that the eight-hour days is sanctioned, by social progress and justice and is not an arbitrable question. This is sheer nonsense, and if it were not it would have no application to the present controversy. To say that
